

Spend a Day in Downtown Museum Day Tour 2

Sherman House Museum

Begin your trip to the past at The Sherman House Museum and see where two icons of that century were born: General William Tecumseh Sherman (who marched through Georgia) and Senator John Sherman (author of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act). Their gift shop is stocked with information about the Civil War.

137 E. Main St.
(740) 687-5891
(740) 654-9923

Georgian Museum

Your next stop is The Georgian Museum, a grand home built in the early 19th century. Learn what it was like to live in luxury at a time when Lancaster was transitioning from frontier town to a city of prominence. You can pick up a souvenir of your visit in their gift shop, located in the basement servants' quarters.

105 E. Wheeling St.
(740) 654-9923

Shaws Restaurant & Inn

What better way to gently return to the 21st century than by relaxing over a meal or beverage at one of our many restaurants? They would be pleased to serve you, and let you rest your feet!

123 N. Broad St.
(740) 654-1842